CARDS FOR THE WARNER LIBRARY

Members of the A. L. A. will recall that the Publishing Board some years ago printed analytical cards for the Warner Library of the World's Best Literature. These have been out of stock for several years, and we occasionally receive orders which, of course, we cannot fill. The Board would willingly reprint the cards if demand warranted. There are about 900 cards in the set and price would probably not exceed $8.00, the original price, notwithstanding the increased cost of manufacture. Will those libraries who wish to subscribe for one or more sets promptly advise the A. L. A. headquarters office. A set of these analytical cards distributed in the card catalog adds greatly to the usefulness and value of the Warner Library. Our inquiries have for the most part come from large libraries who want sets for their various branches.

PERRY PRESIDENT CALIFORNIA LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

Everett R. Perry, librarian of the Los Angeles Public Library, is president of the California Library Association instead of Joseph F. Daniels, of Riverside, as stated in the Handbook number of the Bulletin (September, 1916, pp. 606 and 609). This regretted error is the result of relying upon a newspaper report of the Santa Cruz meeting. We have suspected the press of inaccuracies in the past, but in this case too trustingly assumed it was telling the truth, and so changed our records accordingly. We have learned our lesson.

A CORRECTION

To the Editor:

Through an oversight of the Chairman, caused by an incomplete report by Library No. XV, that library was, in the paper on

The Cataloging Test, printed on p. 242-244 of the Proceedings of the Asbury Park Conference, not credited with the use of Library of Congress cards, though it uses these cards to a considerable extent. Therefore, the record of the work of this library in the tables should read as follows:

	OWN
	English	Foreign	Total Average
XV	20½m.	23m.	21m.
	11c	10½c	10c

L. C.	Grand Total Average	Estimated Average Cost 1912
16½m.	20m.
7c	9½c	47c

Furthermore, the third sentence of the first paragraph of p. 244 beginning "That library No. XV" and ending "the result of low salaries" should be cancelled.

AKSEL G. S. JOSEPHSON, Chairman.
Committee on Cost and Method of Cataloging.
Chicago, Jan. 10, 1917.
